3; Breeks G=5 (no date) 1873 Toda

445 No. XXII.—Tharig (ತರಿಗ). Dish of bell metal made in the low country, used by Todas to eat out of. Four or five sizes will be found in each house. Rupees 3, 12 annas.

408 No. XXIII.—"Pútkuli." Same as No. I, but worn by women so as to hang down to the feet, and not thrown so much over the left shoulder. Rupees 3.

No. XXIV.—Tharp (ತರ್ಪ). Waistcloth worn by women high up over the breasts. The female "tharp" is larger than the man's "tharp." Procured from Serumugu. 10 annas.

No. XXV.—Bíllhagúr. Necklace, made by Kotas. The chain of silver, the tassels of cowries. When worn, the tassels hang down behind. Rupees 3.

286 No. XXVI.—Tinnigdai (ತಿನ್ನಿಗ್ದಯ್). Purse made by Toda women. At funerals it is put into the pouch of the Pútkuli and burnt with the corpse. Made of coloured cotton thread. Gratis.

764

No. XXVII.—Kúttshirum. Ordinary purse worn by Todas. Made in the low country and bought by Todas from traders who came to the Hills. Gratis.

No. XXVIII.—Pénadr (ಪೆನದ್ರ್). Made of black and white cotton by Toda women. Tied round the waist of the corpse and burnt at funerals. Ends done up with cowries. Sometimes eight or ten are burnt at one time. Gratis.